Introduction

The Code of Conduct applies to everyone at Itiviti Group – all employees, managers, executive officers, and members of the Board of Directors. Everyone is expected to follow the Code of Conduct. Managers have a special responsibility to establish a work environment where ethical behavior is encouraged and rewarded. Employees should understand that every instruction that is given or goal that is set by their supervisor is done in the context of this Code.

To support the Code of Conduct, in particular Itiviti's commitments to comply with the law and be true to our other core principles, on an operational level Itiviti has put in place a Corporate Compliance Program. Everyone at Itiviti is expected to be familiar with the requirements of the Corporate Compliance Program as those requirements relate to their position.

As part of the Corporate Compliance Program and in line with the principles articulated in the Code of Conduct, Itiviti has also published a Whistleblowing Policy for reporting serious misconduct at Itiviti. As described in more detail in the Whistleblowing Policy, Itiviti has zero tolerance for discrimination against employees who, in good faith, report serious misconduct through the whistleblowing system.

It is Itiviti's firm belief that following the Code of Conduct is essential to the continued success of the company, and Itiviti sincerely thanks all employees for their efforts in this regard.

This Code of Conduct refers to Itiviti's other policies and/or related manuals; Corporate Social Responsibility Policy, Environmental Policy, Information Security Policy, Data Protection Policy, Work Environment Policy, Whistleblowing Policy, Information Policy, Anti-Corruption and Anti-Bribery Policy. Our Anti-Corruption and Anti-Bribery Policy includes our policy on export control, trade sanctions and competition.

Itiviti requires employees to conduct business with a high standard and ethics. The work atmosphere shall be collegial and collaborative.

Itiviti employees shall adhere to all applicable laws and policies. Each employee must annually certify that they have received, read, complied with and will continue to comply with key policies. Those who supervise others have the additional responsibility of ensuring that those they supervise understand Itiviti's principles, and support those who report a suspected violation.

Employees must avoid situations in which their own personal interest, or the interest of their family members, affect the employee's ability to make decisions that are in the best interest of the company. Every business decision is based on the best interests of Itiviti, not personal interests.

All Itiviti employees shall act in good faith, seek advice, raise a concern, or report misconduct when necessary. Itiviti does not tolerate any direct or indirect retaliation of any sort against such individuals. Those who engage in retaliatory conduct will be subject to disciplinary actions, which may include termination.

Itiviti employees should dedicate all their work time to Itiviti and may not engage in other activities, regardless of whether the engagement is adverse or is competing with Itiviti's practices. Exceptions to this policy may occur on a case by case basis.

After termination or resignation, an employee might begin working for a competitor or starting a business, adverse to Itiviti's interest. However, employees or former employees are prohibited from exploiting confidential information, trade secrets or sensitive information of Itiviti.
